

TRANSCRIPT: What Harvey likes and dislikes

Harvey

Harvey: I like to play wheelchair football. I play in the goal, in defence. The wheelchair has, it's like a special bumper that you hit the ball with and, when I have the ball, the two wheelchairs come and bump it together. What makes it fun is that it gets you exercise and you don't have to stay at home all day doing nothing. You can just go out and do some exercises.

I like swimming. I like basketball. I would like to go on a bike ride because I had a bike attached to Dad but it wasn't a very good bike because when we go on a bike ride and if you go on a speed bump, the bike will tip over.

I like to go on my computer. I play games and do work on it and do my website and stuff. I've put things on there that I like and all about me and stuff like that.

Interviewer: What kind of things don't you like?

Harvey: I don't like vegetables. I don't like fruit, well I like only one fruit, that's banana.
